Deli2Go: delicatessen & meals ready to take home

This raised semi-vertical refrigerated wall unit puts your delicatessen in the spotlight, boosting impulse sales. Fresh products or pre-packed ready-made meals are displayed at eye level, encouraging customers to grab them and go. Simply put, Deli2Go! An extra feature is that the shelves can easily be adjusted for a more dynamic presentation.

Sales-increasing presentation

Deli2Go is the tallest unit in our range. Its open look and design draw the eye to delicatessen like cheese, meat products and fresh meals. And since the products are displayed at eye level, consumers are enticed to make more impulse purchases. This spacious refrigerated wall cabinet allows you to showcase a wide range of fresh products.

Flexible shelf set-up

Deli2Go can be used for any product, from cheese to pizzas, tapas, salads, pasta and much more thanks to its segmented shelves of different widths. This allows you to set it up exactly as you like, depending on the products you want to display. It goes without saying that thanks to thorough tests conducted in our own test lab, Smeva can guarantee a stable product core temperature that is suitable for the presentation of fresh products.
